

In My Weakness

In my weakness, Lord you make me strong
You're the lifter of my head and I echo a new song

When I feel discouraged, sad and all alone
Lord you bring sweet comfort to my weary soul

At times I feel I can no longer stand
With loving arms Lord your strength engulfs me and expands

When anxiety, doubts and fear arise
Lord you calm me gently and they soon subside

Worry creeps in and my hope is lost and shattered
Only your promises Lord concerning me is all that matters

I'm so tired and struggle to make the next step
When I look down I see your footprints Lord carrying me ahead

Whatever the situation, I will not be dismayed
I hold onto your Word Lord and know you'll see me through the day

When life's trials and tribulations spiral deep within
I call upon the Lord in every challenge and see freedom begin

2 Corinthians 12:9 (King James Version)

And he said unto me, my grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness.

Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

God is saying, in this verse, that he has enough grace to carry us through the storms of our lives. He is assuring us that He will not let go of us.

That is what His grace is and it is more than enough to meet any challenge.

In those times of weakness journal, the goodness of God,
He will not leave you or forsake you.
